28th Sunday of the Year 9th October 2022

'Jesus, Master! Take pity on us' is the cry of ten lepers who come to meet Jesus. St. Luke tells us that only one comes back to thank Jesus...and this was a Samaritan! 'Stand up and go on your way. Your faith has saved you.' These are the concluding words of our passage.

What have you asked the Lord for? How hard have you prayed? Was the plea answered? Did you remember to say 'Thank you'? Today's Gospel reading urges us to think hard and not hold back from a spirit of gratitude. Sometimes we don't find the answer to our prayers in the ways we expect; at times we are bowled over by the amazing response of God way beyond our wildest dreams. Perhaps one approach to prompt us to thank God is to find opportunities to thank others: for love expressed, for friendship offered, for kindness shown. I am always so grateful just for the fact that someone else is there! Knowing that a listening ear or a smiling face is on offer makes such a difference.

The ten lepers were all healed but only one was saved. Jesus brings salvation into our world and personally into our lives. There is a relationship of love, whereby we know he is there. There is the trust that he is willing to forgive us. There is the experience of heaven breaking into our whole being through him. THIS IS SALVATION! Jesus' journey is taking him and so many others to Jerusalem; it is there that the power of salvation will radiate intensely from his Cross.

As another week begins, let us feel the presence of God's Son empowering us to be messengers of the saving grace he offers. May these coming days be a source of blessing for us. Let us never forget to say 'Thank you' to others and to God.

With love and prayers, Fr. Norbert
