Eleventh Sunday of the Year 16th June 2013 (page 96)

Last Tuesday was a wonderful day! Family, friends, parishioners and many others gathered to celebrate Mass and with me to say 'Thank you' for the gift of Priesthood. There was such a lovely, prayerful atmosphere and definitely the taste of heaven on earth. God is good! This weekend's celebration rounds off the festivities. I am so grateful to the multitude of people who have worked so hard to get ready for the Silver Jubilee, to those who have sent cards and gifts, to the countless men, women and children who have offered up prayers for me. Thank you.

In today's reading from St. Paul to the Galatians, the Apostle says that Christ lives in him; his faith is in the Son of God who loved him and sacrificed himself for his sake. What powerful words of Paul...for a Silver Jubilarian...for each one of us. Allow Christ to live in you. He wants to take up residence and does not want anything to be an obstacle to his presence. He is compassionate and forgiving - as we see in the Gospel passage from St. Luke. He is ready to challenge too!

For me as a priest of twenty-five years, I depend on Jesus Christ so much to work in and through me. He makes up for my inadequacies. He gives me the energy and enthusiasm I need for my ministry. He inspires me and finds many to support me as I answer his call. He doesn't let me become complacent and is never afraid of pulling me up when I start getting things wrong. He is an amazing Friend and Saviour without whom I could not be who I am.

As you join me today in this great act of thanksgiving which is the Eucharist, reflect on your own personal relationship with the Lord. In the face of the highs and lows of life as well as the everyday situations, ask him to strengthen that bond he has created with you so that you radiate his all-embracing love. Once again, I ask you to pray for me as I pray for you.     With much love, Father Norbert
